

13 Austin Crescent Bridgewater TAS

2 1 4

Just like bread and butter, neutral colours always work in perfect harmony. While it keeps the interior refreshing yet cosy, the exterior will surely leave a positive impression.

Imagine waking up next to a breathtaking water view while the morning sun caresses your bare face-what better way to start the day! This could be your everyday routine when you start living in this lovely home. But, guess what? There's more to it!

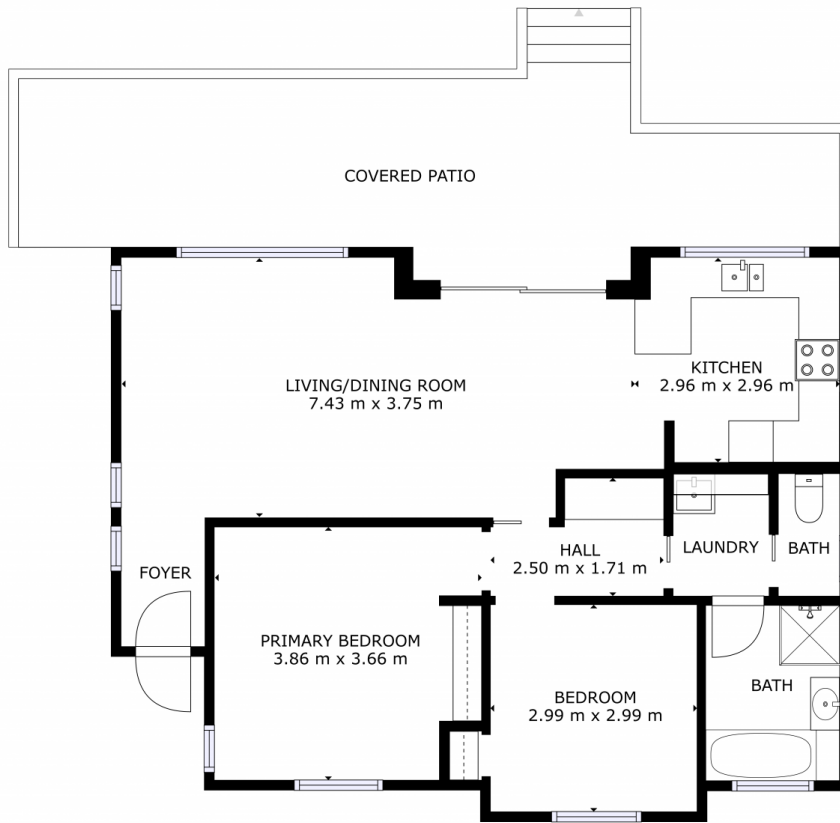

Inside is a spacious living area that opens to the dining and kitchen. This zone is climate-controlled and is soaked with natural light which flows all throughout the house. The well-equipped kitchen is loaded with cabinetry and storage areas. There's a small bench space available here, too!
