

12 Burnett Street New Norfolk TAS

3 1 1

In the historic township of New Norfolk, 12 Burnett Street sits proudly in all it's charming glory. Built in 1943, this character filled weatherboard cottage is simply teeming with many of it's gorgeous original features. Pretty cottage gardens lead you to the front porch of the home where there is a wee spot to sit and enjoy a cuppa.

Double glass and timber doors open to a wide entrance hallway where access to two massive bedrooms can be located. You will immediately notice the high ceilings and sense of space that the cottage offers.

The spacious lounge room is treated to the warmth of a pellet fire and is beset with quality timber mouldings and a lovely mantelpiece. The room is amply large to host many
