

14 Barry Street Glenorchy TAS

3 1 2

Positioned on a level 653m² corner block with lovely mountain views in the sought-after Inner Residential Zone, 14 Barry Street presents an outstanding opportunity for first home buyers, savvy investors, or developers seeking potential (STCA) in a very popular area.

Built in 1952, this solid 3-bedroom home has had a few updates while retaining its classic charm. Step inside to a central hallway that connects the home. To the right, you'll find a light-filled living room with reverse cycle heating/cooling for year-round comfort, flowing through to the kitchen and dining area. Walk passed a sliding door to the back yard, to find the laundry and a second toilet for added convenience.

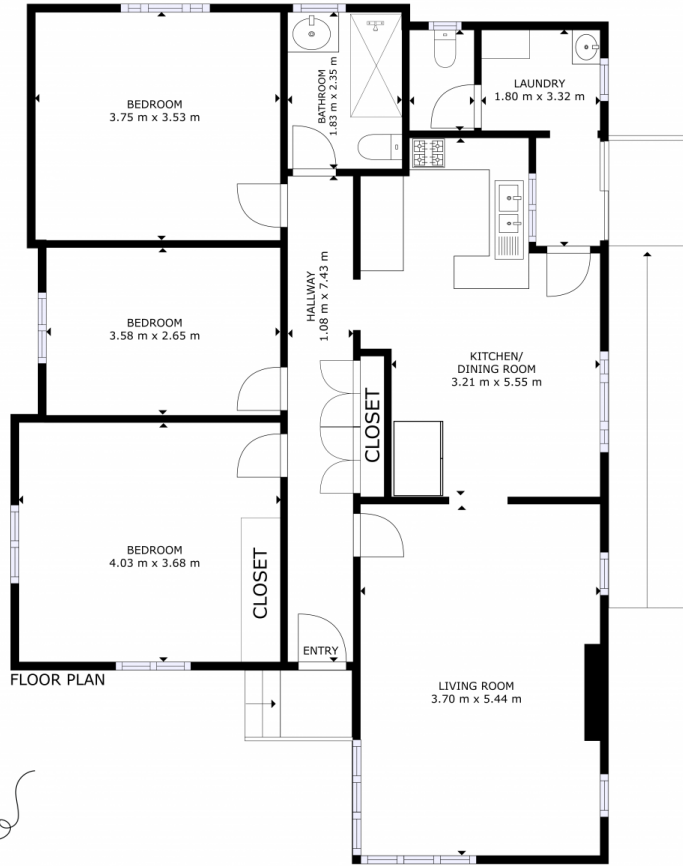

To the left of the hallway are three bedrooms and a
